

The Islander & Cortez Commercial Fishing Festival Crab Cookoff Entry Form

- Entries may be appetizer, salad or main dish.
- Entry form is required, either in advance or with the recipe at the judging.
- Choose from two categories: individual (free) or restaurant/commercial ($25 entry fee).
- Individuals may submit up to three entries.
- Entries must be provided “ready to eat” on plain covered white “disposable” tableware or in plain, covered plastic containers.
- The entry and recipe, including entry form if not submitted in advance, must be delivered to the Maritime Museum, 4415 119th St. West in Cortez, by noon Saturday, Feb. 7. Doors will open at 11 a.m.
- Winners will be announced following the Feb. 7 judging at approximately 1 p.m. and prizes will be awarded at the festival stage at a time to be announced.

Judging for individuals will be for a first prize of $100. Runner-up will receive $25. “Most Original Recipe” earns dinner for two at the Star Fish Company Restaurant.

Restaurants must pay a $25 entry fee and the winner will receive “best crab cake” bragging rights for a year and a framed certificate.

All winners will be honored in The Islander newspaper and “centerstage” at the festival.

- Judges decision is final. Entrants agree to allow publication of their recipe, and to participate in promotion and publicity by the Cortez Commercial Fishing Festival and The Islander newspaper.

Don't forget to include your recipe!
