

The Islander & Cortez Commercial Fishing Festival Mullet Cookoff Entry Form

- Entry form is required, either in advance or with the recipe at the judging Feb. 20.
- Choose from two categories: individual (free) or restaurant/commercial ($25 entry fee).
- Individuals may submit up to three entries, one each from choice of appetizer, salad or entree. Restaurants may submit only for “best mullet recipe.”
- Entries must be provided “ready to eat” on plain, white disposable tableware or plastic containers.
- The entry and recipe, including entry form if not submitted in advance, must be delivered to the Cortez Community Center (former firehouse), 4523 123rd St. Court W., Cortez, by 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 20. You must pay to enter the festival gate to present your entry.
- Winners will be announced and prizes awarded following the judging at approximately 3 p.m. at the main festival stage.
- Judging for individuals will be for a first prize/best entry of $100. Runner-up will receive $25. “Most Original Recipe” earns dinner for two at the Star Fish Company Restaurant.
- Restaurants must pay a $25 entry fee and the winner will receive “best mullet” bragging rights for a year and a framed certificate.
- All winners will be honored in The Islander newspaper and “centerstage” at the festival.
- Judges’ decision is final. Entrants agree to allow publication of their recipe, and to participate in promotion and publicity by the Cortez Commercial Fishing Festival and The Islander newspaper.

Don’t forget to include your recipe!

Submit entry form(s) by e-mail to news@islander.org; by fax (toll free) at 1-866-362-9821; or in person at the Cortez Community Center.
